

Surplus of Engine 303 (1991 Seagrave). Asking price of $35,000 or best offer. The City of Coos Bay reserves the right to reject any offer.

This piece of apparatus was built in 1991 by the Seagraves fire apparatus company. The apparatus features and includes the following amenities:

70,000 miles / 5400 hrs	1500 gpm Waterous fire pump
750 gallon "Poly" tank	6V92 Detroit diesel engine
6 person seating capacity	2- rear facing Jumpseats
3 – 2" preconnect crosslays	2 – 2 1/2" rear discharges
6" front inlet (capped)	Hydraulic ladder rack with 1-14' roof ladder, 1- 10' attic ladder, and 1-24' extension ladder.
Electronic siren with twin air horns	Full warning light package
Ward "no smoke" exhaust removal system	Kussmaul battery charger
Pump tested in 2009. Past records provided by request	Service and parts manuals included
Additional equipment include
600 ft 1 ¾ hose	300 ft 5" hose
150 ft 2 ½ hose	2 – 10ft pony sections 5" hose
1 - 120-1250 GPM master stream with stream shaper	1 - 5" "Jaffrey" intake valve
2 – 10ft pike poles	1 – 24 ft extension ladder
1 – 14 ft roof ladder	1 – 10 attic ladder
3 – 1 ½ Elkhart combination nozzles (200 GPM nozzles)	2 – Wood handle axes
4 – Vulcan hand lanterns with charging bases	* Ladder fire service annual tests available on request

For information call:

Coos Bay Fire & Rescue

150 S. Fourth Street
 Coos Bay, Oregon
 541-269-1191/Fax 541-267-0378

Web site:

<http://www.coosbay.org/cb/departments/FireRescue.htm>